Voice

There's a pride that you share with your sor-row, And it lies deep in your heart, When you Ev'-ry one of their deeds makes a sto-ry, They served the best way they knew, And each think how your "some one" went ov-er, And how he has done his part, As he name will live with all their glo-ry, Long as the Red, White and Blue, We all fell on the real field of bat-tle, At the clos-ing of the day, There were know they will ne'er be for-got-ten, Their days were not spent in vain, And their oth-ers who died for Old Glo-ry, Far from the scene of the fray.

pass-ing a-way is the sun-shine, That will sure fol-low the rain.

Refrain.

Some have fallen in battle, On the fields somewhere in France, Some were lost on the waters, Without getting their chance, Many a life was given, Not in the fighting at all, They were all victory bound, And each name will be found, In the Nations Honor Roll.

Valse Moderato

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in 3/4 time, marked 'Valse Moderato' and 'mf'. The introduction consists of a series of chords and single notes in the right hand, with a simple bass line in the left hand. The melody then enters in the right hand, with the lyrics: 'My dream of life is over now, Since 'Tis true you made a fool of me, I you have said good-bye, All there is know you do not care, Per-haps some left to com- fort me, are thoughts of days gone day you'll un- der- stand, the mean- ing of des-'. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and single notes, providing a harmonic background for the melody.
